Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF)

On October 04, 2006 Roosevelt Turner III, a documented member of the Colton Center Crip gang, was arrested in Moreno Valley, CA by members of PSWRFTF, deputies from the San Bernardino County (CA) Sheriff's Department, agents from the California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitations, and investigators from the Riverside, CA District Attorney's Office. Authorities wanted Turner for Attempted Murder after he allegedly shot and critically wounded two individuals outside an apartment complex. Prior to the incident, Turner questioned the victims regarding their gang affiliation. The victim's denied belonging to a gang. Turner then asked for a cigarette, but allegedly shot the victims after they refused to give him one. PSWRFTF investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information indicating Turner fled to a residence in Moreno Valley. Investigators established surveillance at the target location, observed Turner, moved in, and safely took him into custody.

On October 02, 2006 Michael Sanders was arrested in Savannah, GA by members of SERFTF. The Fulton County (GA) Superior Court wanted Sanders for Failure to Appear to face charges of Homicide by Vehicle, Serious Injury by Vehicle, Reckless Driving, as well as other traffic offenses. These charges relate to an incident on May 06, 2002 during which Sanders caused a fatal traffic accident while trying to outrun a delivery truck. The accident resulted in one fatality, as well as the serious injury of a second victim. Sanders received bond on the above listed charges, but fled the area almost immediately thereafter. The Fulton County Sheriff's Office requested assistance from SERFTF in locating and apprehending Sanders. SERFTF developed information that Sanders established a new address in Savannah, and also learned of his place of employment. SERFTF investigators immediately acted on this new lead, located the target residence, and established surveillance. Investigators positively identified Sanders during the surveillance, moved in, and safely took him into custody. Sanders currently awaits transfer to Fulton County.

New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force (NY/NJ RFTF)

On October 07, 2006 Michael Perez and brothers Candido and Manuel Mayas, all documented members of the Bloods gang, were arrested on Coney Island, NY by members of NY/NJ RFTF. Authorities in Vineland, NJ wanted the three men for Homicide, Attempted Homicide, and weapons violations relating to an incident on October 06, 2006 outside a bar in that city. During this incident Perez and the Mayas brothers allegedly fired into a crowd of people, killing two and seriously injuring a third person after becoming involved in a gang-related dispute with rival Bloods members. Investigators from NY/NJ RFTF and Vineland PD developed information indicating that Candido Mayas fled to Coney Island, and further learned that Perez and Manuel Mayas would join him there. Investigators immediately respond to the target location on Coney Island, located all three subjects, and safely took them into custody. Authorities filed the following charges against the men: Candido Mayas - Homicide, Robbery, Burglary, and weapons violations; Manuel Mayas - weapons violations; Michael Perez - Attempted Homicide and weapons violations. The additional Robbery and Burglary charges against Candido Mayas relate to a home-invasion incident occurring in Vineland on September 12, 2006. Investigators developed information on this prior incident after witnesses came forward following the NY/NJ RFTF arrest.

Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF)

On October 06, 2006 Anthony Mattox was arrested in Richmond, VA by members of CARFTF and detectives from Richmond PD. Authorities in Richmond wanted Mattox, and his alleged accomplice Terrelle Grate, for Conspiracy to Commit Murder and for firearms violations. These charges relate to the September 28, 2006 shooting death of a man in Richmond. Richmond PD requested assistance from CARFTF, which developed information on Mattox's location at an apartment complex. Investigators responded to that site, made entry into the target apartment, and safely took Mattox into custody. A search of Mattox's apartment yielded two loaded handguns, a shotgun, more than $1,000 in US currency, and a quantity of marijuana. Investigators continued to pursue Mattox's alleged accomplice, Grate, and on October 09, 2006 safely took him into custody in Richmond.
